

Retail and Business Banking Financial Services Guide, Credit Guide and Privacy Statement

Preparation Date: 31 July 2015

About this Guide

This is a Financial Services Guide, Credit Guide and Privacy Statement (Guide) to help you decide whether to use the financial and consumer credit services offered by Westpac.

It contains information about:

- some of the financial services and products we can offer you, including details of any remuneration, commission or other benefits that may be paid to Westpac or other relevant persons in relation to those services,
- the consumer credit services and products we can offer you, and
- our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

In this Guide, the words "we", "our", "us" and "Westpac" refer to Westpac Banking Corporation. References to the "Westpac Group" mean Westpac and all our related bodies corporate.

Some other documents you might get from us

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

Whenever we provide advice about a financial product which takes your specific needs, objectives or financial situation into account (personal advice), or offer, issue, or arrange a financial product, we'll usually give you a PDS. The PDS includes information to help you make an informed decision about whether to purchase the product, including information about any significant benefits and risks of the product, and its cost. You may also receive other product documentation.

Other Financial Services Guides

Westpac also provides other financial services that are not covered by this Guide. If you are interested in these services, you may receive an additional Financial Services Guide.

Information about our financial services and products

Westpac is authorised to provide you with financial product advice about and deal in certain financial products, including:

- banking products, such as deposit accounts and payment facilities,
- superannuation,
- financial and debt markets and international products (including foreign exchange accounts and contracts), and
- insurance products.

In general, when we provide financial services, we act on our own behalf. However, when we issue certain insurance products and the insurer is part of the Westpac Group, we act on the insurer's behalf.

We are responsible for the financial services we provide under our financial services licence.

Relationships and Associations

Westpac has a number of associations with entities within the Westpac Group, as well as associations with external product issuers, referrers, brokers and other third parties.

Westpac General Insurance Limited ABN 99 003 719 319, Westpac Life Insurance Services Limited ABN 31 003 149 157, and BT Funds Management Limited ABN 63 002 916 458, who issue some of the products referred to in this Guide, are part of the Westpac Group.

Remuneration and benefits paid and received by Westpac

Product issuers in the Westpac Group receive product fees and may be entitled to certain expense reimbursements if you invest in or purchase their products.

Insurance services and remuneration

Depending on the type of insurance, Westpac can provide you with advice about the insurance, and:

- issue an insurance policy on behalf of the insurer under binder,
- arrange for the issue, variation or cancellation of an insurance policy by the insurer, or
- refer you to the insurer for more information and assistance.

The following table provides further details of the insurance services that we offer, and the remuneration that Westpac and our related companies may receive. Some of these insurance products are issued by insurers who are not part of the Westpac Group.

Type of Insurance	Insurer(s)	Can we issue policies on behalf of the insurer?	Remuneration (as percentage of base premium exclusive of GST and other government charges)

Allianz Australia Insurance Limited ABN 15 000 122 850 (Allianz) may pay a step-up commission and a profit share payment to Westpac, and will fund marketing activities, for certain general insurance products which are issued by Allianz. The amounts are calculated either by reference to annual profits earned by Allianz for motor insurance premiums or as a percentage of total annual premiums for certain general insurance products, as applicable. You may request further particulars of the benefits by calling us on 1300 650 255. If you're referred to us for Home and Contents Insurance (including Landlords Insurance), Westpac may pay the referrer up to $250 (plus GST) per Home and Contents Insurance policy on initial issue only. Referrers may also be eligible to enter competitions run by Westpac.

From time to time, Westpac and other members of the Westpac Group may pay additional fees to referrers. If you are referred to Westpac for your insurance needs, your referrer should provide you with details of these fees, or you can contact us for more information.

BT Super for Life remuneration

BT Funds Management Limited ABN 63 002 916 458 (BTFM) is the issuer and trustee of BT Super for Life. BTFM may receive a financial benefit from your investment in BT Super for Life. Such benefits may include investment fees, administration fees, ongoing fees, and other fees. Details of the financial benefit that BTFM may receive are set out in the PDS or other disclosure document(s) for BT Super for Life.

The amounts we pay to our staff

All of our staff, and the staff of our related companies, receive a salary, plus superannuation, and may also be eligible for cash and non-cash incentives.

Cash incentives vary depending upon the role of the staff member, and may change from time to time, and can take the form of individual or team bonuses based on meeting:

- performance targets in relation to sales or referrals of financial products and other products and services, and
- performance targets based on other factors such as compliance, customer, shareholder, people and corporate responsibility requirements.

Non-cash incentives are also based on meeting performance targets and may include gift vouchers, eligibility for competitions, pre-paid holiday packages, attendance at conferences and Westpac performance shares and options.

It is not possible to determine at any given time whether a staff member will receive the benefits referred to above or to quantify them.

Information about our credit services and products

Westpac's consumer lending products include:

- credit cards,
- home loans,
- residential investment property loans, and
- personal loans.

Our general obligations

As a credit provider, if we assess that a credit contract is unsuitable for you, we will not:

- enter into the credit contract with you, or
- increase the credit limit of the credit contract with you.

We refer to this assessment as the Suitability Assessment.

When will a credit contract be unsuitable?

A credit contract will be unsuitable if:

- the credit contract does not meet your requirements or objectives, or
- it is likely that you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract, or

- it is likely that you could only comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract with substantial hardship.

How can you access a copy of a Suitability Assessment?

If your application for credit or an increase in credit has been approved, you can call 1300 130 206 and request a written copy of the Suitability Assessment, which we will provide within the following time-frames:

If your request is made:	We will give you your assessment:
Before the Credit Day*	As soon as possible after we receive your request
Up to 2 years after the Credit Day*	Within 7 business days after we receive your request
Between 2 and 7 years after the Credit Day*	Within 21 business days after we receive your request

* The Credit Day is the date the credit contract is entered into or the credit limit is increased.

We are not required to provide you with a copy of the assessment if the credit application or increase has been declined, or if the credit contract that your request relates to was entered into before 1 January 2011.

Liability for services

We are regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). As an APRA regulated entity, we are exempt from the compensation requirements in the Corporations Act 2001. We nonetheless have professional indemnity insurance, which provides cover for claims that relate to the financial services that we and our representatives provide.

Neither Westpac nor any other member of the Westpac Group (other than the relevant insurer) guarantees the insurance described in this Guide or BT Super for Life. Investment in BT Super for Life is subject to investment risk, including possible delays in repayment or loss of income and principal invested.

Privacy statement

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services, and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf, and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy.

Our privacy policy is available at westpac.com.au or by calling 132 032.

It covers:

- how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected,
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint, and
- how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

We will use or disclose your personal information to contact you and send you information about products and services offered by the Westpac Group or its preferred suppliers. Please call us on 132 032 or visit any of our branches if you do not wish to receive marketing communications from us.

Westpac Private Bank Supplementary Financial Services Guide

Preparation Date: 1 July 2016

This Supplementary Financial Services Guide (SFSG) supplements the Westpac Retail and Business Banking Financial Services Guide, Credit Guide and Privacy Statement dated 31 July 2015 (FSG). This SFSG is to be read in conjunction with the FSG. This SFSG has been authorised for distribution by Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac) ABN 33 007 457 141, AFSL and Australian credit licence 233714.

Westpac Private Bank is a division of Westpac. Your Westpac Private Banker is able to provide further information as to the range of additional products and services offered by Westpac Private Bank.

Westpac Private Bank

Westpac Private Bank provides financial products and services to wholesale as well as retail clients.

We are authorised to provide financial product advice about and deal in the products in the FSG as well as the following products:

- margin loans
- custodial/depository services
- managed investment schemes
- investor directed portfolio services
- derivatives
- securities
- warrants
- government debentures, stocks or bonds.

Please note that some of the products and services listed above may only be made available if you meet the relevant criteria of a wholesale client.

The SFSG and the Westpac Retail and Business Banking FSG is not intended for 'wholesale clients' as defined by the Corporations Act 2001.

Relationships and associations

In addition to those entities listed in the FSG, BT Private Nominees Pty Limited ABN 93 000 626 264 AFSL 233727, Westpac RE Limited ABN 80 000 742 478 AFSL 233717, BT Securities Limited ABN 84 000 720 114 AFSL 233722, Westpac Securities Limited ABN 39 087 924 221 AFSL 233723, also issue products to retail and wholesale clients and are part of the Westpac Group.

Types of financial product advice

We can give you two types of financial product advice: personal and general. We give you personal advice when our advice takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs.

We may also give you general advice which does not take into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. We will tell you if the advice we are providing is general advice only. For lending products, other than margin lending, the distinction between general and personal advice does not apply.

Staff who provide financial advice

Not all our staff are authorised to give you personal financial advice. Some staff are authorised only to give general advice or personal advice on a limited range of financial products. If a Westpac Private Bank staff member cannot help you or provide you with advice, they will refer you to another staff member who can.

Providing instruction to us and receiving information

You can provide instructions to us via telephone, email, mail or in person. If you are working within tight timeframes or your instruction is time critical please contact the relevant staff member via phone to alert them to your email or mail instructions. Where you instruct us in writing to transfer funds or assets we may not, in certain circumstances, act on this instruction until we have spoken with you via phone or in person to verify the authenticity of the instructions. Other arrangements for providing instructions may be specified in the relevant PDS, terms and conditions or product offer document.

Unless you specify otherwise we will use the email address you provide to Westpac to send you information and documents, including disclosure documents and reports, about the products and services we have provided you. Westpac may also provide you with important information or documents via a link to a web address or a secure website. If you do not wish to receive information or documents via electronic means please advise your Private Banker.

Remuneration and benefits paid and received by Westpac

In addition to the remuneration and benefits disclosed in the FSG, we may receive up to 2.5% (excluding GST) from issuers of the total value of hybrid securities distributed by us. Westpac Private Bank may also receive fees or commissions relating to the wholesale products it distributes.

Referral fees

Where permitted by law, we may pay referral fees where third parties refer clients to us (whether by a person or a company). The fee may be up to 100% of our fees, a percentage of the total amount invested or a flat fee. Where permitted by law, we may also receive referral fees where we refer clients to third parties.
